If the applicant is a person other than the owner of the seal to be registered, the applicant must submit a power of attorney and present his own personal seal.

National Medical Health Insurance: National Pension: Elderly-persons' Medical Care: Long-term Chronic-care Insurance.

In Japan, people who are not enrolled in a company health insurance program, must register for National Medical Health Insurance and National Pension. If you have enrolled in a company social insurance scheme, confirm the details with your employer.

■ National Medical Health Insurance

1F Insurance & Pension Section ☎ : 042-470-7732

Illness and injury can incur unforeseen expenses. In Japan, it is compulsory to enroll in a public health insurance to assure adequate medical treatment. National Medical Health Insurance is one kind of public health insurance; foreign residents who stay in Japan more than three months must also enroll for medical health insurance.

○ Enrollment Procedures

In the following cases, go to the Insurance & Pension Section, taking your residence card and passport.

- When you move to Higashikurume (on entry to Japan)
- When you withdraw from a company social insurance scheme (on leaving the company, divorce, etc.)
- On the birth of a child.
- When welfare assistance has been cancelled.

○ Procedure for Making Amendments

After enrolling in National Medical Health Insurance, notify the Insurance & Pension Section at City Hall within 14 days of any of the following changes in circumstances; Always present your residence card, Individual Number Card or Notification Card for Individual Number and passport.

- On preparing to move to another municipality.
- On enrolling in a company social insurance scheme.
- On receiving welfare assistance.
- On preparing to leave Japan.
- On the death of the person covered.
- On losing your health insurance card
- On a change of the head of household, name and family relationships.
- On moving within the city.
- Other, after amendments to your residence card.

○ Insurance Benefits

- In general, by presenting your health insurance card at a medical institution, you pay 30% of the total medical expenses.
- Refund of "high-cost medical expenses": If the total monthly medical fees are exceptionally high, and your net payments exceed a specific amount, you will be able to apply for a refund.
- Benefits are also available to supplement the cost of births and deaths.

○ National Medical Health Insurance

National Medical Health Insurance is applied to the payment of medical expenses when insured persons visit medical institutions. When you move to Higashikurume, or if you enroll in the National Medical Health Insurance after withdrawing from a company health insurance scheme, you will pay National Medical Health Insurance contributions from the month you enroll. National Medical Health Insurance contributions paid by the householder are based on the number of insured persons in the household and the previous year's income. As for the payment method, refer page 7.

■ National Pension Plan

1F Insurance & Pension Section ☎ : 042-470-7732

National Pension Plan is the nationwide program to provide financial assurance for the elderly or disabled persons (persons enrolled in a company social Insurance scheme are exempt). All persons over 20 years and younger than 60 years of age living in Japan are required to enroll.

For more information, refer to the HP of Japan Pension Service;

○ Procedures for Enrollment & Amendments

The same as for National Medical Health Insurance.

○ Insurance Benefits

- Percentage of fees at medical institutions: Generally net medical fees are 10% of the total medical costs, but are 20% for persons whose income exceeds a specific amount and 30% for those whose income is especially high. If uncertain, consult Insurance & Pension Section.
- Refund of "high-cost medical expenses": If the total monthly medical fees are exceptionally high, and your net payments exceed a specific amount, you will be able to apply for a refund.

- In the event of death: A contribution to funeral expenses.

○ Insurance Premiums

Insurance premiums are calculated based on the income of the previous year. Paid by the insured person.

■ Long-term Chronic-care Insurance

1F Care & Welfare Service Section ☎ : 042-470-7818

Long-term Chronic-care Insurance is a system to cover the cost of care and associated costs with the support of the national and local governments, and premiums of insured persons. Foreign residents over 65 years old who stay in Japan more than 3 months, have to be enrolled in this Insurance and those over 40 years old are automatically enrolled and have to pay premiums with the National Medical Health Insurance.

※ Depending on the type of disease, long-term chronic-care services are available from 40 years of age, for details consult your doctor or the Care & Welfare Services Section.

○ Insurance premiums

Insurance premiums for those over 65 years old are calculated based on income, household taxation and so on. However, from 40 years old to 64 years old, the premiums are done based on the life insurance formula of the and collected in conjunction with the premiums for the National Medical Health Insurance.

○ Long-term Chronic-care Services

- Application: In order to receive extended health care services, it is necessary to be assessed and registered. First contact the Care & Welfare Services Section at City Hall.
- Services: After assessment and registration, care services are provided according to a determined care plan.
- Own expenses: Account for 10%, 20% or 30% of the total care costs in accordance with income. However, the total cost of services that exceed a maximum limit are charged to the patient.

Taxes

2F Taxation Section ☎ : 042-470-7725

Tax Payment Section ☎ : 042-470-7729

Taxes provide for roads and urban development, for welfare, education, and for construction and maintenance of public facilities. They are fundamental to society and are essential assets for the various public services. All people in Japan have a duty to pay taxes and the right to the public services.

○ Taxation of Personal Income

Metropolitan and City resident tax (Jyumin-zei) are paid to local governments (Metropolitan Tokyo and Higashikurume City), income tax (Shotoku-zei) is paid to the national government. Both taxes are based on personal income, and are calculated accordingly. While income tax is pay-as-you-earn (PAYE) and levied on income for the current tax year (Jan-Dec), resident tax is paid in the current fiscal year (Apr-Mar) with respect to income of the previous tax year.

○ Filing Tax Returns

Persons who are resident in the city as of January 1st, are required to file tax returns at the Taxation Section of City Hall by March 15th. However, you are not required to file a tax return in the following cases;

- If you file an income tax return at a National Tax Office.
- If your employer reports your employment income on your behalf.

○ Amount of Metropolitan and City Resident Tax

Metropolitan and City Resident tax are the total of a fixed tax per capita, plus the tax levied on income.

- Tax per capita: A fixed base tax, regardless of income.
- Tax levied on income: Tax calculated on income and deduction amount of the previous tax year.

○ Payment of Resident Tax

- If you receive employment income; your employer deducts taxes from your salary, reports your income and pays all taxes together.
- If you file a tax return yourself, you will receive documents from City Hall in early June each year, and are required to pay the taxes accordingly at City Hall, or at a local designated financial institution.

○ Other Taxes

- Fixed Property Taxes • City Planning Taxes

The owner of property; land, building, or a house, and depreciable assets as of January 1st of the current year, is required to pay taxes (rates) on the property.

- Light Vehicle Tax

An owner of a light vehicle, motor powered bike etc. is required to pay the respective tax from April 1st of each year.

- National Health Insurance Tax

Taxed on the head of household. The head of household should pay National Health Insurance Tax. If any other household is a subscriber of it though, the head of household pays into both Social insurance and Health insurance.

- Payment of City Tax

The counter of the city's head office and branches or specified banks.

Account Transfer

Convenience Store

Mobile Payment Application

Local Tax Payment Site

○ Arrears and Reminders

If city taxes are not paid by the due date, an arrears will be generated or a reminder will be issued. After that, if the payment is not received in a reasonable amount of time, the person may be subject to possibly property seizure.

○ Tax Reduction or Exemption

If you become eligible for welfare assistance, and apply to the Taxation Section at City Hall more than 7 days before the tax payment is due, you may receive a tax reduction or exemption.

○ When preparing to leave Japan

Fixed Property Tax (in early May) or Notification of Resident Tax (in early June)

If a person is leaving Japan before receiving a tax payment notice or a tax payment is pending, a designated person must be selected before the departure to manage tax payment or to file a tax return on behalf of the person leaving.
